

As in the previous months, some students of Ateneo De Manila University immersed in SHaCC Phase 17 last March 4-6 and 11-13. They lived with the community in order to understand better their journey from poverty to a more decent way of life. This opportune event was carried out through the assistance of the community's leaders.