

The Holy Week falls on the month of March. Noteworthy to ponder in the Year of Mercy and in the light of the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus, is the fact that all evils and the struggles and pains that go with these will end when the definitive victory of the Kingdom comes. SHEC, in the spirit of St. Hannibal and empowered by Jesus and the Spirit, works for the doable realizations of the Kingdom in the here and now.