

Good management is a way of exercising humanity's vocation to be worthy stewards of God's blessings. It is always through this principle that SHEC conducts meetings with its stakeholders. One instance was the meeting with SHFC officials last July 25, 2013. Among other things, the meeting's purpose was to follow up the updated statement of accounts of the members of Phase 2.